Coach Cousineau states (2009 Club Season), "Of all the new players, I would consider Eric the MVP, Eric earned a starting position and proved to be able to play multiple positions." In addition to soccer, he is an avid lacrosse player, plays middy/faceoff for his club and travel team, averaging 1-3 goals per game—heartbeat of the team and lead scorer with countless assists. Off season he cross-trains in Lacrosse, Club in-door soccer, High School in-door track, and club swim team during the summer. A natural athlete! Stats and Achievements: Eric Riha, STRIKER for the Tabb "Tigers" Junior Varsity soccer team racked up 10 goals (average 1 goal per game), 14 assists, and 2 for 2 Free Kicks; notably delivering his final Free Kick past a five man wall, bending around the wall into the upper 90 from 25 yards out. The team earned its #1 JV soccer team ranking with an 8-2-0 overall record for the 2010 Virginia High School League (VHSL) soccer season. In 8 league games, Eric's club team only surrendered 9 goals (second best in the league) and scored the second highest number of goals 20 to 21 than any other team—coach indicates it was a credit to the teams MVPs. Eric is a very strong player with tremendous acceleration, endurance, and displays excellent technique, agility and speed. Eric is an outstanding individual, both athletically and academically. He has a great work ethic to become the best player possible—"the right stuff." Very focused and trains with intensity at each practice and game. Has great character and is very team oriented. Very coachable. Very athletic.
